Junior 4-H Camp

July 9-13, 2018

Alleghany, Augusta, Bath, Highland & Rockingham

W.E. Skelton 4-H Educational Center
at Smith Mountain Lake, Wirtz, Virginia

4-H camp can offer your child, ages 9-13,
a fun, safe, and challenging experience

Objectives of 4-H Camping

- o To have educational, recreational, and social experiences in outdoor living away from home.
- o To provide opportunities to meet and learn to get along with other people by living together and participating together in a camping experience.
- o To provide opportunities for youth to learn to take responsibility for their own decisions and actions.
- o To provide new experiences for youth by exploring new interests or by exposing them to new approaches to old interests, such as nature, aquatics, music and other life skills that cannot be provided as effectively outside of camp.
- o To teach youth about citizenship and the importance of being a responsible citizen.
- o To discover and provide opportunities for developing leadership skills.
- o To discover special talents among campers and teen leaders and provide opportunities for developing these talents.
- o To learn to meet individual and group responsibilities.
- o To enrich the on-going 4-H program and to involve youth in unit 4-H clubs.
- o To have fun and to be inspired to practice better 4-H club membership.
